From the Cantor

We look forward in the days ahead to welcoming the New Year 5778, and our prayers are for a year of good health, happiness and peace for our families, our friends, and all the members of our community. But surely we also have on our minds all that has befallen the communities ravaged by the hurricanes Harvey and Irma.

Those communities are now in the process of trying to rebuild. It will take a long time and a great deal of resources. I have been moved by how the Jewish community has rallied to lend support and assistance during the hurricanes and in the aftermath.

I wish to encourage everyone to take part in this effort. The Jewish Federation of North America has set up a special fund to assist those in need from both hurricanes. More information is available at <https://jewishfederations.org/HurricaneIrmaRelief>.

You can view a number of videos that have been produced to give some idea of the impact of Hurricane Harvey on the Jewish community of Houston.

Cong. Beth Israel - <https://vimeo.com/232903044/c5c3e66508>

We pray that with G-d's help, and with the help of all the good men and women assisting in these efforts, the communities affected by these storms will rebuild and be renewed. May all who have suffered find healing of body and soul.

Zochreinu l'chaim – remember us for life. May we at Temple Beth O'r Beth Torah -- our families, friends, and all who dwell among us, be blessed this coming year with a life filled with meaning and purpose, happiness and security, and let us say Amen, Ken Yehi Ratzon.

Shana tova,

Cantor Steven Stern

Selichot Service

This service of moving penitential prayers ushering in the High Holidays will take place at TBOBT on Saturday, September 16.

There will be an inspirational film at 8 pm, followed by refreshments and the Selichot prayers.

Adult Bar/Bat Mitzvah Class

Contact Cantor Stern if you are interested in joining a class to celebrate this Jewish rite of passage.

From The Co-Presidents

The purpose of the High Holidays is to acknowledge the past, deal with it and ask forgiveness for our failures. The hope is that we leave it behind and begin our New Year with a clean slate. As we approach the High Holy Days we look forward that the coming of the New Year will be one of renewal. We ask that our past misdeeds be forgiven and enter the New Year with a new image, one in which the past is done with and the future will be approached with a new way to deal with life.

We at Temple Beth O'r Beth Torah have much to be thankful for and may this coming year be one of good health and happiness and PEACE.

Sisterhood Message

I hope you have had a relaxing and fun summer. I was very busy! I went to Women's League International Convention in Virginia and to the New York Gift Show with Jayne Heidelberger. Some great items were purchased and received for Gift Shop. Give Jayne a call for details!

Now I know you are ready to get involved with Sisterhood! We have some exciting programs in store for you. To open the 2017-18 year, we are having a Sunday Brunch Meeting on September 17 at 10:00 am. A jewelry artist, Amy Kanarek, will teach us how to make a beautiful beaded bracelet with a Tree of Life charm attached. If your $36 dues are paid by the start of the meeting there is no charge. Otherwise there is a $5 fee. Everyone will take home a finished bracelet! It makes a nice gift or use it yourself.

Then at our second meeting on Monday, October 16 at 8:00 pm, we will put your baking skills to use. Our very own Judy Hurok will reveal the 'magic ingredients' for her famous pareve mandelbread. You will not only bake with Judy but also bring home a copy of the recipe. That will be one tasty evening!

More terrific programs will be coming throughout the year, with Sunday brunches along with Monday night meetings.

Meanwhile, I want to wish all of you a Healthy & Happy New Year!

From The TBOBT Men's Club

August Activities:

Friday, August 25 Men's Club Shabbat

Aron Richman, Ritual Chair, organized the event and acted as Cantor. Michael Goldstein acted as Rabbi. Men's Club members led the English and Hebrew speaking parts. Mike Miller presented a review of the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs National Convention held in July. A key theme was: "The millennials do not join traditional organizations of any kind. How does Men's Club (Conservative Judaism) attract this generation?"

High Holiday Ushers Aron Richman is organizing the Usher Volunteers needed for Rosh Hashanah mornings on Sept. 21 & 22, Yom Kippur evening on the 29th and morning and evening of the 30th. Men's Club appreciates help from men, women, high school, college age students and post-graduates. Contact Aron Richman (aron.richman@gmail.com) or Mike Miller (mwmillerchem_102@aol.com).

Future Activities:

Sukkah construction starts Sunday Sept. 24. On Oct. 1, we roll on the roof cover and decorate with Barbara James and the temple school students. Please help Men's Club with the construction, Contact Mike Miller (mwmillerchem_102@aol.com).

Oct. 8th Men's Club Congregational Pancake Breakfast and School Puppet Show in Sukkah.

Oct. 28th Game night

Nov. 5th Fifth annual TBOBT, CBI, TBEMC Breakfast Honoring Military Veterans. This year the event will be held at Congregation Beth Israel, Scotch Plains.

Shomrei Ha'Aretz

A mandate for Rosh Hashanah:

"God led Adam around all the trees of the Garden of Eden. And God said to Adam: "See My works, how good and praiseworthy they are! And all that I have created, I made for you. [But,] be mindful then that you do not spoil and destroy My world - for if you spoil it, there is no one after you to repair it." (Midrash Qohelet Rabbah 7:13)

Even if (despite near unanimity among peer-reviewed scientists) we accept "debate" re: climate change, Judaism teaches us to take serious precautionary measures, even before all the data are amassed.

The Men's Club Board wishes our members and the TBOBT family a Happy, Healthy, Successful and Sustainable New Year.

Dear Temple Beth O'r Beth Torah Family and Friends,

We are pleased to announce that we are busy planning a L'Chaim Gala Dinner at which we will be honoring three cherished Temple Beth O'r Beth Torah families. We will be recognizing Arny and Myrna Young, Dick and Lisa Lavroff, and Drs. Arthur and Di Millman for their unwavering commitment to our Synagogue, the community and to the principles of Tikun Olam, healing the world. The dinner is scheduled for Sunday, November 12, 2017 at 3 p.m. at our Temple.

Arny and Myrna Young have been leading lights of our community for more than 50 years. Arny is a past president of Temple Beth O'r Beth Torah and Myrna has served as a Board member for many years. Together they have supported our Temple in a myriad of ways. They are the principals in A & M Industrial and are committed to community involvement and support many philanthropic causes.

Dick and Lisa Lavroff are exceptional leaders of our Temple. As proprietors of Deli King of Clark they have been extraordinarily generous. Dick, a regular member of our Sunday Minyan, has been honored as a Chatan Torah on Simchat Torah. Lisa is a dedicated member of Sisterhood. Together they are steadfast supporters of all our endeavors.

Drs. Arthur and Di Millman are pillars of our community. Di has lent her beautiful voice to our choir for many years. Dr. Arthur Millman serves as Head of the Cardiology Department at Trinitas Regional Medical Center. Dr. Di Millman is Director of Non-Traditional Nursing Programs at Seton Hall University. Both have dedicated their lives to healing and nurturing.

Please join us in saluting our honorees by attending the dinner and supporting our Journal. The funds raised will help Temple Beth O'r Beth Torah fulfill its mission of being a House of Prayer, a House of Learning and a House of vibrant Jewish Life for our members and for the entire community.

We thank you for your consideration and we look forward to seeing you on November 12, 2017.

Sincerely,

Claudia Dorsch
