From the Cantor

Our celebration of Hanukkah was truly a Festival of Lights, with our main event the outdoor Menorah Lighting, followed by a party with lots of latkes and sugfaniyot, with prizes and gifts for both children and adults. It was a joyous and celebratory event!

But I could not help but ponder that our festivities took place in what is now a post-Pittsburgh world. After the horrendous tragedy that befell the congregants of the Tree of Life synagogue back in October, we are all so much more aware and sensitive to the threats that are out there in our society. Those threats come from differing and opposing directions. As I write these words, I am reading of terror and planned terror ranging from Strasbourg, France to Toledo, Ohio. It is a dangerous world, but it has always been so. It is just that we are now feeling it a little closer to home.

Dear Cantor Stern,

Thank you for attending Norm's Bar Mitzvah. You helped to make it a special day. You are a major force for his decision to learn. Thank you and we bless you for your kindness. As in the past, I would like to make a contribution to the Temple in memory of my mother Rose Handler. We remain so appreciative of your kindness to her.

Janice Handler

Our response must be two-fold. We must first enhance our own security. Under the direction of our Security Committee we have made changes to our procedures and will continue to do so to address safety matters. The second aspect of our response must be based on the lessons of Hanukkah. Like the Maccabees in the days of old, we too must stand firmly and with courage in the face of evil. For we are charged with the responsibility to continue to kindle the lights that dispel the darkness, lights that serve as beacons both for us and for others.

In the days, months and years ahead, may the lights of freedom and hope continue to shine brightly.

Cantor Steven Stern

Dear Cantor Stern:

On behalf of the Board of Governors of RWJ University Hospital Rahway, please accept our sincere gratitude for supporting RWJUH Rahway's Pastoral Care Department.

Thank you for your donation. The funds you provided allow us to furnish the pastoral care needs of our patients and their families.

We truly appreciate the generosity and friendship of Temple Beth O'r Beth Torah. Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,
Kirk Tice
President and CEO

From The Co-Presidents

Dear Congregants,

It's been a while since we've communicated.

Please note we want everyone to know that TBOBT has formed a Security Task Force. We are implementing changes to our security procedures for your safety and protection.

Hoping your Chanukah was warm and wonderful, filled with love and laughs. May your life shine with the light of the Menorah candles. Always remember what a miracle Chanukah is.

May you find peace and joy this Chanukah season and have a Happy, Healthy secular New Year.

Shalom from your Presidents,

Audrey Silverman and Toby Prince

Education Report

Our Hebrew School students enjoyed our Hanukkah celebration on the third night of the festival, leading in the blessings over the lighting of our outdoor synagogue menorah. They also led us in singing and then enjoyed latkes and sufganiyot while playing a game of Hanukkah Kahoot! under the direction of Morah Erica. Congratulations to Aubrey Kessler who won the contest!

In preparation for the holiday our Olim class designed their own very special and beautiful tile menorahs.

A family Shabbat Pizza and Prayer service was held on November 16 and was enjoyed by all. The Lomdim class has been diligently learning the Kabbalat Shabbat prayers.

All our students are progressing well with their studies. All of the Olim class students have scheduled their Bar/Bat Mitzvah dates and are busy preparing for that special milestone. We look forward to celebrating with them!

Thelma, Elaine, Judy and Cantor

Messages from Our Members

Many thanks to all our members who sent Golden Books and good wishes for the honor I received as "Kallat HaTorah".

Rayna Warner

Ari and Amanda White, and Gene White and Ellen Cohen, would like to thank all those who sent Golden Books on behalf of the birth of our son and grandson, Elihu Yosef. It means a lot to us that he's already contributing to Sisterhood's support of our shul.

We thank our TBO/BT friends for their good wishes and cards in honor of Marc's engagement to Lindsey Fox.

Esther & Jay Schlesinger

Sisterhood Message

Sisterhood's annual Paid-Up Dinner Meeting on Nov. 20th was a huge success with about 48 women in attendance to hear Matthew Goerke talk about how to improve our memory. The food from Deli King in Clark was, as always, delicious!

We have been busy with sponsoring Shabbat Oneg & Kiddush luncheons. We provided for the ones over Thanksgiving weekend. Moving forward, we are preparing to provide the Oneg & Kiddush luncheon for December 21 & 22. Why don't you come to temple on one or both of the days to be spiritually uplifted and enjoy some social time with your friends?

With winter soon upon us, we have some activities to warm you up! On Friday, January 18th we will be holding Women's League Shabbat. Sisterhood members will conduct services that night, followed by a lovely Oneg. We will also sponsor the Kiddush luncheon on Saturday, January 19th. If you are interested in participating, please call Fern Cammy for a part in the service.

Join us for Game Night on Monday, January 21 at Esther Schlesinger's home. Dinner will be served. The fun starts at 6:30pm. Cost is still only $15. It's always a fun night, so give Esther a call to reserve a spot. You won't regret it!

May you & your family have a healthy & happy 2019!

Joleen

Gift Shop News

The Gift Shop is still open! Most of you are aware of the water damage done to the showcase. Due to the diligence of several Sisterhood members, the majority of our inventory was saved from being damaged. Everything is stored in the locked closet/cabinet. If there is something that you need, please let me know.

It will take some time for the showcase to be repaired. In the meantime, we need some way to display our inventory. If you know of someone who has a glass cabinet that they need to sell/donate, please contact me.

On that note, some members knew I was on a medical leave of absence. I wish to thank Bonni as well as the Sisterhood Board for continuing to keep the Gift Shop open. I am happy to say that I am doing well and I am returning to running the Gift Shop. There are 2 ways you can reach me:

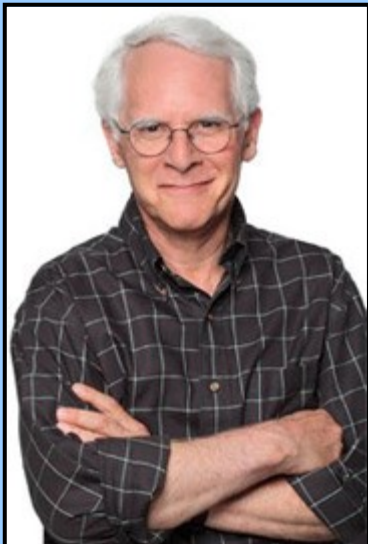

- 1) Email: jayne.heidelberger@yahoo.com (This is the best way to communicate with me as I travel and do not always have access to phone service. I always respond quickly.)
- 2) Phone: 732-494-0064 (Leave a message and I will return your call as soon as I am able.)

Jayne Heidelberger, Gift Shop Manager

If you are celebrating a special simcha, please let the office know the details so we can include it in the Beth RepORter.

Don't forget to buy ShopRite Gift Cards for the holidays!
5% of the amount of ShopRite gift cards purchased is tax deductible.
