From the Cantor

There is the well-known rabbinic dictum: Mi shenichnas Adar marbim b'simcha – when the month of Adar arrives, we are to increase the joy in our lives. Now, since this is a leap year in the Jewish calendar, we actually have an Adar 1 and an Adar 2. So it is only appropriate that we have a special event in each of these months to bring an extra measure of joy.

On the 19th of Adar 1, which corresponds to February 24, we'll be treated to the hilarious humor of Bob Alper. Bob is a very funny guy and has been described as a cross between Steve Martin and Alan Alda. As a former pulpit rabbi, he says that he has had lots of experience performing before difficult crowds! I think he will find TBOBT to be very welcoming. Please mark your calendars and don't miss this, our annual Sol Sern Memorial Program!

And on the 14th of Adar 2, March 20, in the evening, we will celebrate with our annual Purim Extravaganza. Hear the Megillah reading, participate in our Costume Parade, win a prize, and enjoy our famous Ice Cream Social! This is always one of our most fun-filled events of the year!

Living joyfully, with simcha, is a central Jewish theme, indeed an imperative. "Ivdu et HaShem b'simcha," declares the Book of Psalms. "Serve G-d with joy!" This is true throughout the year, but it is especially true in Adar. Who would deny that there is enough sadness and melancholy to go around in this world -- one need not have to go searching for it. But we are morally obligated to make a conscious effort to bring simcha into our lives.

According to researchers on the subject, much of our tendency toward happiness is genetic. But the good news is that a full 40% is connected to the choices we make. Connecting with others and doing playful things are on the list of things we can do, says one noted expert from the long-running Harvard Study on Adult Development.

So join us for the comedy concert and for the Purim festivities. You will connect with others in a playful atmosphere. And, I am certain, you will be happy!

Joyfully,
Cantor Steven Stern

Join us for our Purim Extravaganza on Wednesday, March 20

Pasta Dinner - 6 pm;
Megillah Reading & Costume Parade - 6:30 pm, followed by our famous Ice Cream Social!

There is no cost for Temple members but RSVP to the office for Dinner by Friday, March 15th!

Presidents' Message

It's nearly the official end of winter. Thank you winter, you haven't been so brutal this year, but we hope you don't mind we are ready to say goodbye. It's that time again that we simply long for springtime. If we had no winter, the spring would not be so pleasant.

Purim this year begins at sundown on Wednesday, March 20th and ends at sundown on March 21st, just as we welcome the first day of spring. Purim teaches us to never give up hope. Instead let us embrace the words of Queen Esther in times of trouble. She told us what we must do, she asked that we bond in unity, stop hurting one another and join together in prayer. This is the time to strengthen our Jewish pride and reach out to someone with kindness.

On Friday, March 1st we are welcoming our five new member families. Please respond on time so a beautiful Member Appreciation Shabbat Dinner will have a great turnout.

This year a personal letter was sent to each congregant in order to encourage attendance at Shabbat morning services. We are very pleased with the responses. We also need volunteers for our security task team which is an essential part of our safety.

Our synagogue must serve as the heart and soul of our spiritual community. Heading forward we must keep the bar high and provide opportunities for all our congregants to be engaged in services, committees and events.

Shalom from your Presidents,
Toby Prince and Audrey Silverman

Education Report

Our Hebrew School students are making great progress in their studies. The Lomdim Class continues to learn the Kabbalat Shabbat prayers and will be leading an upcoming Family Service. They participated in a Tu B'Shevat Seder in January to celebrate the Land of Israel.

All of our Olim Class students are currently engaged in pre-Bar/Bat Mitzvah studies and we look forward to celebrating with them and their families in the months ahead.

Purim is around the corner. We will have our annual celebration with Megillah reading, Costume Parade and Ice Cream Social on March 20. Get your costumes ready!

Keep an eye on our calendar for an upcoming Hebrew School Open House. Invite your friends and neighbors with school-age children to attend!

B'Shalom,
Thelma, Elaine, Judy and Cantor

Sisterhood Message

Hello everyone!

Sisterhood has some upcoming events that are sure to warm you up this winter!

On Sunday, February 17th at 9:45 AM, Susan Kobren will speak on Jewish Geneology. Learn how to research your family tree! A sumptuous breakfast will be served. You can shop for items in the Gift Shop, buy ShopRite gift cards and socialize with friends. Call the office by Friday, February 15 to reserve a spot.

Soon you will be getting by mail an order form for Purim Shalach Mones baskets & certificates. Prices remain the same. Send the forms back with checks to Helene Davis as soon as possible. Remember, it's a mitzvah to send and great to receive.

Once again, we are asking for volunteers to help assemble the Purim baskets and fill out the certificates on Monday, March 18 at 7:30 PM at the temple. It's easy and so much fun and only takes an hour or so of your time. You even earn donor credit! Thanks for your anticipated participation.
