Irving Berlin, an American Institution

Jerome Kern concluded that Irving Berlin has no place in American music. He is American music. During Irving Berlin's career he published an estimated 1,500 songs. Marty will discuss how the immigrant boy from Russia became the classic ragtime to riches story. Irving Berlin's first published song earned him 37 cents. Sit down and listen to the story of one of the greatest songwriters of popular songs like "Alexander's Ragtime Band", "God Bless America", "White Christmas", "A Pretty Girl is like a Melody", "Puttin' on The Ritz" and "There is No Business Like Show Business".

From the Cantor

It has been a while since I read Charles Dickens' A Tale of Two Cities. I don't recall all that much of the plot, but I certainly remember, as many of us do, how the novel begins: "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times..."

Those are words that can be said to apply to probably any period of time. But given what has transpired this past year, and feeling in particular the impact of events of recent days, is it truly possible to characterize this as being in any way the "best of times?" Would we not have to look really hard and stretch quite a bit our sense of reality?

This has been a difficult, challenging, and yes, often a depressing time for all the reasons that need not be reviewed. But even in such times it is worthwhile, even essential, to be mindful of the positive. How grateful should we be to live during a time when a vaccine to counter a worldwide epidemic can be produced with such speed? This does not diminish our grief over our losses, but where would we be without the hope that our present-day scientific prowess brings?

We have in many ways been isolated this past year, but let us also take note of the blessing of being able to communicate and connect with each other with technology that has only very recently become available. Our online Shabbat services and our gatherings each week have indeed been bright spots in an otherwise dark period.

Dickens' epoch novel continues, "It was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair." How true of our current day!

But I would prefer to conclude with words from another of Dickens' novels. "Suffering has been stronger than all other teaching... I have been bent and broken, but—I hope—into a better shape."

We will emerge from all this -- better and stronger!

From The Presidents Council

2020 is history! A new year and a new beginning for our congregation. Our number one concern has always been and remains so for the health and safety of our members. The Board of Trustees grappled with the question to reopen or not to reopen.

We needed to be in compliance with the safety protocols of State, Local and CDC requirements, and the temple remains opened virtually. Conducted by our Spiritual leader, Steven Stern; there were over 80 chances between services and programs to connect to the community. We are here for you.

Our temple President, Audrey Silverman, whose term should have ended at the end of June, kindly offered to continue for an additional 6 months ending on 12.31.2020. The entire board did a wonderful job dealing with unique and unprecedented issues never before seen by or dealt with by any organization.

The nominating committee reached far and wide to find a new president or co-president. As a result, The Board of Trustees decided to have a President's Council which consists of 4 talented individuals who collectively will lead this congregation for a trial period of six (6) months. This cohesive group has leadership roles both currently and in their past. The Presidents's Council members are :Fern Cammy, Karen Hivry, Jonathan Phillips and Evie Shulman. In addition to the serving the synagogue as members of this council, they will continue to serve as Vice Presidents within their respective committees.

If you recall Cantor Stern's message during the High Holy days and his reference to Fred Rodgers's mother, (that's right the guy with the cardigan sweater in the neighborhood), that during times of difficulty to look toward the helpers. There are always helpers. We need your help as volunteers to help on committees and as future leaders of our Temple. Even if you only have an hour, there are many ways for you to fulfill a Mitzvah.

May we all find the wisdom to make the right decisions during these challenging times and welcome 2021 with resolve for a brighter future.

Shabbat Shalom.

Respectfully,
Fern Cammy, Karen Hivry,
Jonathan Phillips and Evie Shulman

Education Report

Classes resume after our winter break. Our Hebrew school students are continuing to make progress in their religious education. Our older Olim students have been meeting virtually twice a week, while our Yaldeinu class has had in-person classes. In addition, Cantor Stern has been working individually with each of our Olim students to concentrate on advancing Hebrew reading skills and understanding important concepts.

Mazel tov to the Riveles Hebrew School family for winning our Hanukkah contest!

Yasher koach to Jonathan Eckert who has led a number of prayers during our Shabbat services!

Sisterhood Message

Even though these are not “normal times,” Sisterhood is trying to bring some normalcy to our members’ lives by providing fun activities and meetings. So far, we have had an outdoor paid-up membership luncheon in the temple parking lot for 42 ladies; a virtual cooking demo by four of our members presenting a Thanksgiving side dish to 30 women and finally we co-sponsored with the temple, the Chanukah Candle Lighting by providing special goody bags & jelly donuts to the 32 people present.

Well, we still have plenty of activities planned for you to enjoy in the next two months. A variety of events are ready for you! First, on January. 15, Sisterhood will run the Friday night Shabbat service in honor of Women’s League Shabbat. Then on Thursday, January 21st, at 8:00 pm we will have a virtual Comedy Night. Two women comedians will entertain us. We can all use some laughs! Remember, we just celebrated the 100th anniversary of women gaining the right to vote. On Thursday, February 4th at 8:00 pm, we are co-sponsoring with the Cranford Temple’s Sisterhood a very exciting program. The Illinois Holocaust Museum in Chicago currently has a special limited-time exhibit on the life of Ruth Bader Ginsburg. We will be treated to a virtual tour of the entire exhibit by a museum docent. Only 50 women from each Sisterhood can sign up for the tour. More information will follow.

Finally, Purim comes early this year on Feb. 25. Since we will be celebrating virtually, we cannot offer Shalach Mones baskets to purchase. Instead we will be offering only Certificates for purchase at a reduced price of $5 each. They will be mailed for you from the temple to whomever you select. Remember this is still a mitzvah. You will be getting the order form by regular mail within the next few weeks. Please make your generous purchases so we can help support TBOBT financially. We greatly appreciate your assistance! So stay safe and let’s hope 2021 brings us more comfort and actual time we can spend physically with our loved ones!!

A Message from the Men's Club

FUTURE activities:

As soon as the meeting ban is lifted Men's Club will be meeting to plan for the future. Unfortunately, the coronavirus pandemic continues to limit our activities. We have had a couple of Game Night gatherings courtesy of the Cranford VFW. We greatly appreciate their hospitality. Our initial membership mailing yielded 34 men signing up. This keeps us on par with last year's membership. Thank you for continuing to be part of our Club and keeping it viable. The final tally on last year's Yom Hashoah fund raiser showed about the same level of contributions were made to the Men's Club. Thank you to all who contributed to make this a success.

In December, The Northern NJ Region FJMC held the annual Man of the Year/Youth of the Year ceremonies via Zoom. In addition, on December 12-13, there was a virtual meeting regarding the Quad Region retreat and how this might be run in the late spring. I will keep you informed.

Upcoming for us are World Wide Wrap on Sunday, February 7, 2021 before and during morning minyan. As we will still be Zooming services, I am hoping to start at 10:00 am with a training class and history lesson on putting on Tefillin. There will be more information following by e-mail, text messages and phone chain. Please join us for this marvelous program. If you need to purchase Tefillin, let me know as the FJMC has 3 sizes and prices to choose from.

As we have not had our usual Sunday programs, perhaps we could have a parking lot meeting with a meal and a program. Please call my cell (908-265-4570) to text me a suggestion or e-mail me at bsgnjtax@aol.com and leave a message. I hope to hear from you.

Not far away is Yom Hashoah and in that vein, we have placed our Yellow Candle order. Continue good health and vitality and we will see you all soon. Hopefully the vaccines that are being distributed will bring us back to normal socializing very soon.

Shalom,
Michael Goldstein, President
